Mwawia in wheelchair four years from malaria, making her lame from the waist down and one side of her body and blind.

Mwawia standing for the first time and walking.

Mwawia pushing her own wheelchair. Jesus has now healed her eyes as well, she can now see.

Mwawia not wanting to get back into her wheelchair to go home.

Next day Mwawia leaves wheelchair at home and walks to crusade with her mum unaided.

David gets out of wheel chair on 2nd attempt and walks holding onto a hand. His legs had buckled under him at the first attempt.

“Will my legs really support me?” He Asks, “without holding on?”

His legs do support Him. Now nothing stops him, as he pushes the wheelchair at a run.

Jennifer, her first attempt at Standing after seven years in a wheelchair.

She now gets up in front of the crowd to testify how JESUS HAS JUST HEALED HER.
