

How the bicycle ministry began

While in Uganda 22 - 25 April 05 God spoke to me about reaching the unreached villages of Africa which have never heard the gospel, simply because there are no roads to them, no electricity, TV sets or even radios. "That's impossible" I replied "It would take two lifetimes to even reach one country." "I will show you" the Lord replied.

Within a week the Lord raised up 20 evangelists in Uganda and 30 in Kenya. There was only one problem; how could they get there? If only they had a bicycle, a megaphone and bibles.

So I came back to England and within six weeks the first bicycles, megaphones and bibles were in their hands. From this 34 churches were soon planted and the bicycle ministry was spread to Malawi and Ghana.

This simple ministry then spread country wide, through Eurovision giving us the African list of pastors who receive Prophetic Vision magazines.

Our main pastors then networked all these pastors together within their regions of their country and started a bicycle ministry in each region. By Dec 2006, 200 villages in Kenya and 100 villages in Ghana were reached.

Due to the number of evangelists being raised up in this ministry, we started a Bible School designed to train pastors and evangelists in the very rural areas of Africa and the Far East. These are Christ-Centred, Holy Spirit empowered and not too theological. All this is done by correspondence through a network of already trained pastors. These Centres are set up in existing churches, halls and sometimes under mango tree's and are free of charge.

Right now we are needing more bicycles, megaphones and bibles to keep abreast with this fast growing ministry to these unreached forgotten peoples.

This is God's vision and His doing. If we can acquire these bicycles, thousands of villages can be reached.

A bicycle costs £40 and a megaphone £25 and bibles £2 each. £69 will then equip one evangelist with a bicycle, megaphone and 2 bibles. Up to now, the average results for one evangelist, is to plant up to three churches a year. Where else can we plant a church for £69??

BIBLE SCHOOL to train Evangelists

In a vision sometime ago, Jesus pointed me to the Father and I took a step toward Him and found myself in a white mist.

I could see nothing or hear nothing but what I felt I will never forget. A drop of the Father's heart for the nations of the world. The pain, the love, the sorrow was so great, I burst into tears, "I'm sorry", I repeated over and over, what else could I do? I realised then that half the world don't want to know who created them and many who do, prefer their own chosen life styles, than to turn to Jesus.

Suddenly I realised that there was something I could do about it and prayed "Father God I promise you, I will give you every day for the rest of my life to reach as many lost as I can and to encourage your churches to do the same". I know the Father has accepted my promise.

It is this that has pushed me out to preach to the nations, to start the bicycle ministry. Now God is raising up many evangelists for the bicycle ministry and they need training.

While in the Philippines, Bishop Blanco who has been collecting Bible School notes for 30 years, looks across the table at me and says. "The Lord says these Bible notes are for you. He wants you to open an International Bible School to train evangelists to reach the lost".

Me? I close my eyes and suddenly saw all is in place to receive this Bible School; GOD HAS DONE IT AGAIN. This correspondence Bible School opened in January 2006 and within the year grew to 47 Bible School groups in 17 countries. In December the first 134 graduates received their certificates and now need bicycles to start evangelising the villages and plant churches. Every three months a new group of evangelists will graduate depending on when they started the training. 567 students will graduate during 2007 in Africa. We are awaiting numbers from the Far East.

The challenge for us is to keep up with this expansion that the Lord is enabling, with the intention to reach every remote village in 5 years. With your help this can be done.
