Praise Report. / Highlights from India.

I felt the Lord say "You are not here to preach, but to proclaim that the Kingdom of God has come in the person of Jesus who died on the cross & rose from the dead on the third day. To introduce them to the power of the resurrection and the Holy Spirit. Then get on with the practical and I will do the rest. I will heal the sick, deliver the oppressed, and set the captives free."

This came true right from the first meeting, even with the great difficulty in interpreting, the Holy Spirit came down in power causing the people to shake, cry and pray very fast. Jesus healed the sick so fast that people came in from the street and received their healing also. Next morning the people arrived at the pastors residence where I was staying, to receive healing as the word spread around.

That evening we went to a village crusade in the middle of a road, here again the Lord came down in power, blind eyes opened, the lame walked and then people disappeared and came back with many more sick people from the village and the Lord healed them all, including the deaf and dumb.

The next day I was sick, but determined to go to the crusade, After a 2-hour drive we arrived in the city slums. We walked through the worst squalor of rubbish dumps and the poorest of people living in tiny grass huts. "People are not supposed to live like this!" I exclaimed and then arrived through the stink, to a bamboo church packed with people sitting on the floor. Some people had come a long way to receive healing.

I preached sitting down through feeling ill, led them through the sinners prayers and all received their healing, including myself. I arrived back so excited in the Lord that I prayed the entire night, the Lord then gave me a vision.
