Our Lord Is So Practical – Pakistan

After graduating the evangelists by telephone recently, where God came down in power to commission the evangelists I had another phone call. The Muslim extremists had burnt down 150 homes of a Christian village in Kasur, killed 50 of their horses burnt the horse carts, destroyed their water well, and left the Christians homeless.

Barnabus Trust took on the project of feeding these people in makeshift tents, Pastor Arif went in regularly to encourage the Christians. Pastor Arif asked me to give these Christians a message by phone. I spoke, and pastor Arif translated the message into Urdu. After this the Lord said "pray for the sick." I asked the sick to stand up and I was told 30 stood up. I told them to put their own hand on their sickness or pain and receive their healing in Jesus name. Jesus healed them then and there.

I was told on the phone that in their excitement, five of the people rushed forward to testify of their healings. They praised God in such ecstatic joy. They had lost everything, but no one could take away Jesus.

Berkaty Bibi was sick with pain in her body that she can't walk or stand. After the prayer she stood and walked with her husband to receive their food

Iqbal Masih had pain in his back. Suzanne prayed over the phone and he stood immediately as his pain had gone as Jesus healed him.

Bushra had fever and pain in her whole body but Jesus healed her immediately.

Terrorist Accepts Christ.

Venkata Krishna now 30 years old joined the Maoists terrorist group at 18 years old, training to destroy government properties in India and became their leader in 1996.

In 1998 he was caught and jailed until 2001. In 2002 while on the way to court he heard "Jesus is the light of the world and He is Saviour and King" so he asked God if He would release him from prison he would lead a better life.

God answered his prayer and he was released and went home to his parents. On 6th June 2009, Rev. Ganta visited his village in India and preached on "What is your destiny" Venkata responded and accepted Jesus as Lord. Venkata has also joined 'Step out in faith Bible School of evangelism, to become an evangelist under teacher Namata Asservdam. Venkata will be graduating in November 2009.

Paralysed 3 Year Old Healed - India

On the third night of the crusade, a mother and child rushed forward to show a 3 year old girl walking. The night before, when Suzanne told them to put their hand on their sickness and receive healing in Jesus name, this mother laid her hands on her child who was born paralysed from the waist down. Jesus instantly healed the child. Now she brought her child to show the crowds her 3 year old daughter learning to walk for the first time.
