PRESS RELEASE

Lady Evangelist Proclaims Jesus to Over a Quarter of a Million People Over 3 Days

Suzanne Pillans, of Suzanne's Ministries 'Step out In Faith Bible School of Evangelism', has recently returned from a three day crusade to India, where she amazed to see thousands of people healed as they listened to the gospel, resulting in 91,881 new converts.

20,000 People attended the first day, 85,000 the second day and 160,000 on the third day as news of the healings shown on National TV, free of charge, brought in thousands more people.

Suzanne began this ministry in 2005 when she heard the Lord tell her to reach the remote villages with evangelists on bicycles. She ran horse shows at first to raise money for 22 bicycles, resulting in the planting of 54 churches. The following year she registered as a charity, started the Bible School of Evangelism to train evangelists, and raised enough funds for 100 bicycles for the graduates, who as result planted 186 churches.

Since then the ministry has grown amazingly. 2007 saw the provision of 300 bicycles, 458 churches planted, and the successful completion of training for the first 224 India evangelists. This year, 2008, funds were raised for 1,000 bicycles, and over 10,000 churches were planted, while the now fully trained 3,000 evangelists, plus the interest of many different denominations, then made a large crusade possible.

The strategy has been simple. All converts have been divided into areas and joined to existing churches. Where there are no churches, new churches are currently being set up by the 'evangelists,' and in this way every person who makes a commitment is disciplined. But the excellent networking means that the massive work is all achieved at very low cost. A bicycle, for example, costs only £32, but makes communication both speedy and effective, while the whole recent crusade cost only £9000. Do the Maths! With 90,000 converts the cost worked out a startling 10p per head.

A further 10,000 evangelists will be trained in 2009, while Suzanne has also been asked to run another crusade from the 23rd – 25th March.
